The Harrow Wine Story - Top of The World

We started building this list in 1998, when we had two pages, now we are rated not only as having one of the finest Restaurant Wine Lists in U.K, but were voted in the top 100 Wine Lists in the World this September.

Along the road we have picked up a few “Gongs” including Decanter Wine Restaurant of The Year, The AA Wine List of The Year, The Wine Spectator Best of Award of Excellence and recently “The World of Fine Wine” top award of 3 Stars and The Jury Award for one of the best Wine Lists in the World.

Roger is now very much involved in Wine Journalism working for Decanter Magazine and www.the-buyer.net. He is also highly sort after as a Wine Judge and is Panel Chair for IWSC, has spent over 10 years judging for The Decanter World Wine Awards and has recently been added to the judging panel for The Pinnacle Wine Awards, based in Singapore. Roger also sits on The Taittinger Sommelier of The Year Competition.

All our wines are served in Grape Varietal Specific Riedel Glasses, which enhances the wine and your experience. We are able to provide a whole range of wines by the glass by using preservation systems such as Le Verre de Vin and Coravin.

We list the wines by grape variety giving you a chance to reflect or choose a wine that may not immediately come to mind when you are looking for a specific grape or style. We buy wine to age allowing these wines to shine and be drunk at their best.

If this list is just overwhelming for you note we match every dish on our menus with at least two wine choices, and have a comprehensive by the glass list.

The Tri Nations Wine Challenges

The Tri Nations Wine Challenges were set up by Roger & Sue 6 years ago in Cape Town, and are regularly hosted in Little Bedwyn and Cape Town and have also been held in Newbury, New Zealand and Australia highlighting the wines of South Africa, Australia and New Zealand matched blind to a tasting menu. In the last couple of years we have invited California and Chile as Guest Nations.

In 2014 the Jones Family went into wine production and have 2 wines already produced with further wines on the way. The first 2 wines, a Chenin and a Pinot Noir, were both made in South Africa.

The Mamba Riedel Decanter Awards was set up by Roger and Sue over 13 years ago to highlight premium wines from Australia. This event hosted every July in a marquee in our grounds, is attended by the UK's finest decision makers in the Wine Industry led by Steven Spurrier.

Estate-grown in The Elms Vineyard, on a 'steeper slope' which yields 'riper fruit' without noble rot, this wine is made in a style 'similar to a late-harvest, Mosel Spätlese'. Very rich, with intense, citrusy, peachy flavours and a racy, very long finish, lovely poise and vivacity. Already hard to resist, these wines are for long term cellaring

Classic Aged Dry Australian Riesling (2 of 2)

Plantagenet Riesling, Mount Barker Australia 2005 £48.00

The 2005 is really good with a lovely tight crisp finish, there may be bottle variation, but when good, it is brilliant.

Plantagenet Museum Release, Mount Barker Australia 1998 £78.00

Great purity of fruit, lovely soft balance, offering a long lingering fruit filled taste. Zesty but rich.

Jasper Hill, Georgia's Paddock Riesling, Victoria Australia 1998 £88.00

Sought after wine, the nose is full of elaborate spices & flavours, but the wine is then silky smooth, superbly balanced and lingers for an age on the palate, evolving with toasty brioche overtones. Made in Heathcote in Victoria.

Luscious Fruit Filled New World Riesling

Rippon Vineyards Riesling, Central Otago New Zealand 2006 £44.00

Below 12% alcohol, seductive rich but dry palate, plenty of depth, perfect with food, a real star.

Mount Edward Riesling, Central Otago New Zealand 2006 £44.00

Ripe, crisp, dry Aussie style, lovely wine and price.

Rewa Estate Riesling, Central Otago New Zealand 2011 £48.00

Full flavoured Riesling in the European style great structure and finesse.

Craggy Range Otago Station Riesling, New Zealand 2008 £44.00

Two different styles, the Otago is more Germanic with lovely fruit and floral flavours whilst the Te Muna has more minerals, toasty flavours and dryness.

Hartenberg Occasional Riesling, Stellenbosch South Africa 2012 £38.00

Rich textured intensely flavoured Riesling that beat Wigan Riesling in our Tri Nations Wine Challenge in Cape Town.

Fruity and Off Dry Riesling

Mac Forbes Riesling rs37, Yarra Valley Australia 2008 £58.00

Aged in small wooden barrels, this Mosel style Riesling is a wonderful example of Mac's hands on approach. The name applies to the residual sugar so the rs37 is a fuller richer wine, great with foie gras.

Pewsey Vale "Prima" Riesling, Eden Valley Australia 2007 £38.00

An early harvest Riesling. Made in a semi-dry style. Only 9.5% alcohol. Sealed with a glass stopper.

GEWURZTRAMINER

Hugel Classic Gewurztraminer, Alsace, France 2015 £48.00

Fermented in neutral barrels, touch of tangerine on nose, then a restrained elegant focused wine that highlights the magic of this grape, these wines are aged in bottles not age and the result is amazing.

Joseph Cattin Gewurztraminer Grand Cru Hatschbourg, Alsace 2015 £48.00

Joseph Cattin Gewurztraminer Vendage Tardive, Alsace 2015 £98.00

Grand Cru resembles delicate Turkish delight, bright clean floral flavours, a clean crisp finish with great acidity. The Vendage Tardive is light gold with amber glow, fruity aromas of pineapple and lychees, with a hint of spices, long acacia honey and touch of toasted brioche great with strong cheeses such as Stinking Bishop.

Domaine Schlumberger Grand Cru Kessler, Alsace 2014 £52.00

Controlled floral, soft Turkish Delight, fragrant, luscious but dry on the finish, encouraging another sip.

Mountford Estate Waipara Hommage L'Alsace, New Zealand 2011 £98.00

Not a 100% Gewurztraminer, but it is in the style and a favourite of mine. Riesling 25 %, Pinot Gris 25%, Muscat 25%, Gewurztraminer 25%, as the name states this is the blend of 4 classic Alsace grapes and gives homage to a beautiful style of wine. This is a fantastic wine, so well balanced and takes you into the dreamland of grand Cru Alsace wines, an inspirational.

MUSCAT

Joseph Cattin Muscat Hatschbourg Grand Cru, Alsace 2014 £48.00

Joseph Cattin Muscat Hatschbourg Grand Cru, Alsace 2012 £58.00

VIN GRIS

Felton Road Vin Gris, New Zealand 2008 £68.00

Felton Road Vin Gris, New Zealand 2016 £48.00

A summer bouquet of strawberries and cream and even cherry pie. The flavours, suggestive of its Pinot Noir origin, are encased in a charming and generous mouth feel. A very pale salmon colour... a uniquely different: frivolous, but not trivial wine!

WELSCHRIESLING

Welschriesling, Pole Position, Opitz 2006 £32.00

Spicy, refreshing & vibrant.

KOSHU

Koshu Kayagatake, Grace Vineyard, Katsunuma 2011 £48.00

ROSÉ

Gabrielskloof Rosebud, Bot River South Africa

2018

£34.00

A real favourite – the Bot River terroir is characterised by the cool microclimate afforded by its close proximity to the Atlantic Ocean. This Rose may be a little darker than currently fashionable, being 60% Syrah and 40% Viognier, but it contains beautiful aromatics and elegant flavours of white melon, papaya and rose.

Break a Leg Blanc de Noir Rose, South Africa

2018

£38.00

Still Rosé from Cinsault grapes. Delicate perfumed green herby nose, savoury, and cranberry, finely textured, lightly tart. I had a hint of Fino at one stage which added structure and saltiness, but then the sweet cranberry nectar evolved making it a wine you could simply not spit out. Lukas likes the saying “keep it straight and simple”, yes this may be straight and simple to him, but my word what a fantastic Rosé this is, reminiscent of the very best from Provence. Given their heady prices this is a bargain and will also age beautiful – a marvel!

Vina Tondonia Rosado, Gran Reserva, Spain

Half

1993

£150.00

1991

£75.00

Full, dark-coloured Rosé with developed oak and rich dry sherry flavours. Develops to many stages as it opens up in the glass. The only aged Rosé in the world. Superb as an aperitif or with seafood and spicy dishes.

FELTON ROAD PINOT NOIR

‘With Felton Road offered in over 500 top restaurants around the world (over 40 countries at last count), it can be hard to keep up with them all, but there are a small group that we count as "friends of the winery". These tend to be people who come to visit us, like to drink the sort of bottles that excite us, stay in touch with the things we are doing and, of course, people who cook the sort of food that we love to eat. The Harrow at Little Bedwyn is most definitely in that gang. Has been for a long time and will be for many years to come. Just a shame Roger and Sue won't open up a branch in Bannockburn!’

Nigel Greening, Felton Road Wines

Behind the Label

Felton Road Bannockburn Pinot Noir

The Bannockburn winery's 'standard' Pinot Noir is a distinguished wine in its own right, blended from its three vineyards at Bannockburn – The Elms, Cornish Point and Calvert. Matured for 11 months in French oak casks (30 per cent new), it is bottled without fining or filtering. Instantly attractive.

Felton Road Cornish Point Pinot Noir

From the company-owned Cornish Point Vineyard at the eastern end of Bannockburn, 6 kilometres from the winery, this is always one of my favourite Felton Road reds. Matured in French oak barriques (about 30 per cent new), a sturdy and deeply coloured, powerful and highly concentrated, with deep plum, spice and nut flavours, lively and long. It should flourish with cellaring.

Felton Road Calvert Pinot Noir

Grown in the Calvert Vineyard at Bannockburn – which neighbours and is managed by Felton Road – and matured in French oak barriques (about 30 per cent new), is a very savoury and complex wine, deep and youthful in colour. Full-bodied, it is ripe and silky-textured, with rich, vibrant cherry, plum, spice, dried-herb and nut flavours and a long finish. It's delicious in its youth but evolves too.

Felton Road Block 3 Pinot Noir

Grown at Bannockburn, on a north-facing slope 270 metres above sea level, this is a majestic Central Otago wine, among the finest Pinot Noirs in the country. The mature vines are cultivated just in front of the winery, in a section of the vineyard where the clay content is relatively high, giving 'dried herbs and ripe fruit characters'. The wine is matured for about a year in Burgundy oak barrels (about 30 per cent new), and bottled without fining or filtration.

Felton Road Block 5 Pinot Noir

This is winemaker Blair Walter's favourite Felton Road red. Grown in a 'special' block of The Elms Vineyard at Bannockburn in Central Otago, it matures for a year in French oak barriques (30 per cent new), and is then held for several more months in seasoned oak casks. In a vertical tasting of the 2007–2011 vintages, held in September 2012, the 2010 vintage was the standout – exceptionally concentrated, yet deliciously poised and silky-textured. The 2011 is a 'masculine' style, powerful and firm, sweet-fruited and savoury, with deep cherry, plum and spice flavours, tight and youthful. It should flourish for a decade.

John was the Head Winemaker at Grange but don't let that put you off, these prices are far more reasonable.

Yalumba The Octavius Old Vine Barossa Shiraz, Australia      2004      £125.00

This is big-ticket stuff, the kind of wine that is not just for an occasion, it is the occasion. Yalumba reminds us once again why they are so famed for crafting wine from the Barossa region that is so expressive. This is full of intrigue and excitement, lots of black fruit, mocha and liquorice with a powerful palate. Multi-layered and long, it seamlessly glides across the palate with well-measured tannins and acids. The 04 is a treat whilst the 13 is vibrant and youthful.

The Relic, Dan Standish, Barossa Australia      2007      £199.00

4% Viognier, the rest Shiraz. "Offers up a sexy bouquet of floral notes, bacon, smoked meat, incense, and blueberry. Dense, sweet and layered on the palate, it will offer much pleasure over the next 8-10 years. It does not get much better than this from the 2007 vintage. The Standish Wine Company is quickly becoming one of the Barossa Valley's benchmarks." Robert Parker.

Ron and Emily Laughton tend this prized winery in Heathcote in Victoria, South Australia. Ron bases his wines on the great Northern Rhone style and has Syrah clones from Chapoutier in his vineyards. This is a stunning aged example of his brilliant wine making skills.

Trinity Hill Gimblett Gravels 'Homage', Hawkes Bay New Zealand      2010      £150.00

Trinity's flagship wine, in memory of Gerard Jaboulet, who took John Hancock under his wing in 1996, even giving him cuttings of the famed Chapelle vines, to produce this multi award winning wine.
